

The Graduate Programme in Clinical Research and Foreningen af Yngre Forskere Rigshospitalet invites PhD students to a theme day on

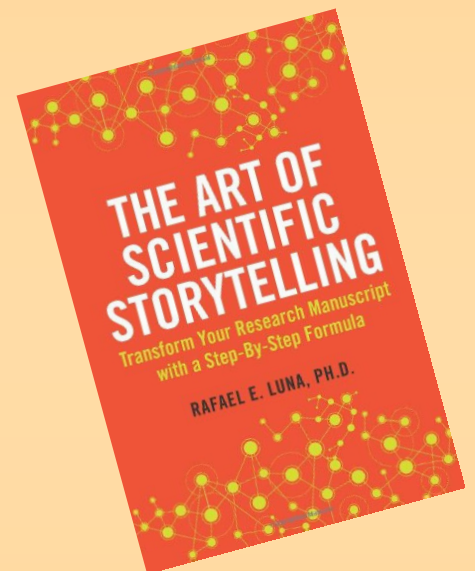

Academic Storytelling

- Communicating science in a clear and compelling fashion

Monday January 18th 2016

Rigshospitalet, Auditorium 2, Entrance 44

- 14.00-14.10 Welcome by Vibeke Backer
- 14.10-14.50 The Art of Scientific Storytelling for writing research manuscripts
by Rafael Luna
- 14.50-15.30 How to present your research to the general public
by Peter Hyldgård
- 15.30-15.45 Break with refreshments
- 15.45-16.45 The Art of Scientific Storytelling for delivering elevator pitches
by Rafael Luna
- 16.45-17.00 Round off by Vibeke Backer
- 17.00-18.00 Networking and refreshments

Sign up no later than Monday the 11th of January at fyf.rh.mail@gmail.com

The first 80 participants will receive the book "The Art of Scientific Storytelling"

Rafael E. Luna, Ph.D. is a Program Director and instructor at Harvard Medical School, which has resulted in 22 publications. In addition, Dr. Luna is the author of the book, The Art of Scientific Storytelling: Transform Your Research Manuscript with a Step-By-Step Formula. He has taught this narrative method throughout the United States and Europe

Journalist, editor and biologist Peter Hyldgård has 15 years' experience in science communication and science journalism courses, focusing on teaching scientist how to communicate their research to a wider public.

